

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – RecordMax Branch Manager Volunteers for Chattanooga Area Cancer Fundraiser

May 3rd, 2009 – Chattanooga, TN

RecordMax feels fortunate to have people like Shari Hixson, Branch Manager at RecordMax Chattanooga, on our team. Shari just completed her second stint as a volunteer at the Boxcar Pinion Bluegrass Festival held at Raccoon Mountain Campgrounds outside of Chattanooga, Tennessee on April 30th thru May 2nd.

The Boxcar Pinion Bluegrass Festival is a tribute to its namesake, Thomas “Boxcar” Pinion, a local man who loved to listen to and play Bluegrass music. Boxcar died of cancer in 1990 and the festival was started as an annual event in his honor to promote bluegrass music and to give enjoyment to those who don’t often get the opportunity to hear it. A portion of the proceeds goes to the American Cancer Society.

RecordMax Chattanooga customer Tanya Jones at Artech Design Group recruited Shari two years ago. Tanya is one of the principal organizers along with Cindy Pinion, one of Boxcar’s daughters. This year Shari played a larger volunteer role heading up the kitchen end of things; spending about 15 hours over the three day event (not including time leading up to the event). “It was fun” offered Shari when asked about the festival. “The crowds were huge so the rain didn’t really seem to dampen anyone’s spirits. And Russell Moore and IIIrd Tyme Out brought the house down Saturday night. It’s for a really good cause and the music is excellent” she added.

The festival included Bluegrass music (of course), food and camping as well as arts and crafts. To conclude this year’s activities and begin planning for next year’s event, a formal meeting is scheduled for May 30th; primarily to show appreciation to sponsors and volunteers for this year’s festival yet also to get people thinking about 2010.
