

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – RecordMax Leader Receives Recognition at Annual Industry Conference for Contributions to the Association

May 11th, 2009 – Birmingham, AL and Daytona Beach, FL

RecordMax USA is excited to announce that Jim Teske, its President, received recognition as a Volunteer of the Year from commercial records management trade association PRISM International at the industry's annual Conference and Expo in Daytona Beach, Florida.

"Whether it's the entrepreneurs or professionals that run records centers and are the board or whether it's the PRISM staff, we're talking about people that put a lot of time, energy and talent into benefiting an entire industry" offered Mr. Teske. "The conferences offer both an opportunity to learn new stuff from one of my peers and an opportunity to see people that are some of my best friends. I feel pretty fortunate whenever I can get involved working with PRISM" Teske added.

Over the course of about a twelve month period, Jim will have spoken at four national or international PRISM events; had an article penned and published for the industry's In-Focus Magazine; contributed significantly to recruiting efforts; and participated on two separate Task Groups – the Membership Committees and the Disaster Response Team. At the Daytona conference, Jim offered a presentation in case study style on the tornado event of April, 2008 (www.recordmax.com/tornado.htm).
