

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – RecordMax Continues Growing & Learning With an Active Industry Association Role

August 5th, 2009 – Dallas, TX

The RecordMax Companies continue to be actively involved with our primary industry association, PRISM International, via a presentation at a recent “Boot Camp” in Dallas, Texas as well as with one of our principals being nominated for PRISM’s Board of Directors.

The recent event was basically a seminar for new field representatives for commercial records management companies. Held at the Embassy Suites Outdoor World on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 4th and 5th, the presentation was very well attended and included both an outside marketing consultant as well as experienced operators and managers from several leading records management companies across the country including RecordMax; Fireproof Records Management (in Columbus/Cleveland, OH); National Records Centers (with headquarters in Louisville, CO). Jim Booth, the Executive Director for PRISM International, also served as moderator and participated on a special session on Compliance and Client Concerns.

And RecordMax President Jim Teske was recently honored with a nomination for a Board Position with PRISM International and will face elections later this year. Jim is a long time PRISM member and has been especially active in the last several years through his presence on both the Membership and Disaster Response Committees as well as through making numerous presentations (Orlando, Jacksonville and Dallas) in the last 10 months and penning a couple articles for industry publications.
